The marriage of Miss C. Dorothy Farr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Farr, to John August Sabotka, youngest son of Mrs. Margaret Sabotka, which took place yesterday at 5 o'clock, was one of the interesting events of the afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride, 8 Rhode Island avenue northeast, in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and close friends, the Rev. Eugene Hannan, pastor of St. Martin's Church, officiating. The house was tastefully decorated with white roses and white chrysanthemums, white roses in gold baskets adorning the table from which the wedding supper was served.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a costume of light gray cloth, with hat and other accessories to match. She carried a shower of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Sarah Farr, her sister, attended as bridesmaid, wearing a gown of tulle and carrying a basket of flowers. The bride's maid, Miss Constance Morgan, the bride's niece, was a flower girl and wore a frock of white tulle with a spencer waist of light blue tulle. The bridesmaid, Miss Sabotka, carried a basket of flowers. An orchestra played the wedding music and gave a program during the supper.

NO QUININE IN THIS COLD CURE

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends colds and grippe in a few hours.

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged-up nostrils and relieves all passages of the head; stops sneezing, discharges or nose running; relieves the headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, deafness, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling. Ease your throbbing nose—nothing else will do it—Pape's Cold Compound, which costs only 25 cents at any drug store, acts without assistance. Lasts nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.
